DIARY NOTES

13 March 1964

25X1A DD/S [REDACTED]

1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning Sherman Kent announced that [REDACTED] would come on board to work with the Agency during November, December, and January.

4. [REDACTED] buzzed to say that he had noted my report at the Senior Staff Meeting on 2 March that there were 14 staff employees and 8 dependents in [REDACTED]. He said that [REDACTED] had told the Director in Saigon that there were 9 staff employees and 26 dependents. I asked [REDACTED] to check these figures; and he later advised me that according to the [REDACTED] desk there are 12 staff employees and 14 dependents, including Office of Communications personnel, in [REDACTED] as of today.
